

NINE DAYS NOVENA TO SAINT JUDE (THE SAINT OF HOPELESS, DESPERATE AND IMPOSSIBLE CASES)

BRIEF HISTORY

On Oct. 28, the Catholic Church celebrates the feast of Saint Jude, also known as Thaddeus, one of Jesus' 12 apostles. He is believed to have written the Letter of Jude, one of the shortest books of the Bible, and is thought to have been martyred in Beirut, Lebanon, in around 65 AD. He is typically depicted with a club or axe, symbolizing the way he died, as well as with a flame above his head which refers to Pentecost.

Although Jude is not mentioned much in the Bible and only had one quote attributed to him in the Gospel of John (14:22), this quiet apostle is extremely popular among Catholics today. St. Jude's popularity probably stems from his patronage of lost causes. An experience Jude had while in the city of Edessa is said to be the reason why St. Jude is associated with lost causes.

According to the ancient church historian Eusebius, while Jesus was still alive, the ruler Abgar V of Edessa was afflicted with an incurable and painful disease. He had heard of the miracles of Jesus and wrote him a letter requesting a visit. Jesus responded that he would send one of his disciples. After Jesus' Ascension into heaven, Jude went to evangelize near the city of Edessa and went to visit Abgar. Jude laid his hands on the sick ruler and he was instantly healed.

Many people choose to carry the image of St. Jude on a medal or as a pendant on a necklace for comfort and call on him in their time of need and healing.

Daily Prayer to St. Jude (To be said three times a Day)

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the Church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of difficult, hopeless and impossible cases, of things almost despaired of, Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone.

Intercede with God for me that He brings visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly -(make your request here)- and that I may praise God with you and all the saints forever. I promise, O Blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor granted me by God and to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you.

Amen

1. Be merciful to me, O God, because of your constant love. Because of your great mercy wipe away my sins!
2. Wash away all my evil and make me clean from my sin!
3. I recognize my faults; I am always conscious of my sins.
4. I have sinned against you-only against you and done what you consider evil. So you are right in judging me; you are justified in condemning me.
5. I have been evil from the day I was born; from the time I was conceived, I have been sinful.
6. Sincerity and truth are what you require; fill my mind with your wisdom.
7. Remove my sin, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
8. Let me hear the sounds of joy and gladness; and though you have crushed me and broken me, I will be happy once again.
9. Close your eyes to my sins and wipe out all my evil 10. Create a pure heart in me, O God, and put a new and loyal spirit in me. 11. Do not banish me from your presence; do not take your holy spirit away from me 12. Give me again the joy that comes from your salvation, and make me willing to obey you. 13. Then I will teach sinners your commands and they will turn back to You. 14. Spare my life, O God, and save me, and I will gladly proclaim your righteousness. 15. Help me to speak, Lord, and I will praise you. 16. You do not want sacrifices, or I would offer them; you are not pleased with burnt-offerings. 17. My sacrifice is a humble spirit, O God; you will not reject a humble and repentant heart. 18. O God, be kind to Zion and help her; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem. 19. Then you will be pleased with proper sacrifices and with our burnt-offerings; and bulls will be sacrificed on your altar.
